

Celebration of the 403rd 'Lachit Divas'
organized by the Department of History, Bhattadev University.

Pathshala, 24 November: Today, 24 November, the 403rd 'Lachit Divas' was celebrated at the initiative of the Department of History, Bhattadev University. In the beginning of the programme, Professor Dhanapati Deka, the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Bhattadev University offered a floral tribute to Bir Lachit Barphukon. In his inaugural address, Honourable Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dhanapati Deka spoke at length about the bravery and achievements of Lachit Barphukon and termed Lachit Barphukon as a national hero. Professor Paromita Das of Gauhati University delivered the special lecture on the topic 'Fortifications of Guwahati during the Period of Ahom- Mughal Conflict'. Professor Paromita Das delivered an informative talk on the Ahom fort construction strategies and the security of Guwahati during that period. At the end of the lecture, Professor Paromita Das interacted with teachers and students. In addition, teachers, representatives, and faculty members of the Department of History of different colleges affiliated to Bhattadev University also participated in the event. Assistant Professor of the Department of History, Suren Das, anchored the program, in which Arindam Talukdar, HOD, the department of History, delivered the welcome speech. The program came to an end with vote of thanks proposed by Mukul Patgiri, Associate Professor, Department of History, Bhattadev University.

