PRESS RELEASE

Bhattadev University Observes “Students’ Day” in Honor of ‘Bodofa’ Late. Upendra Nath Brahma

Bajali, Assam | March 31, 2026

Bhattadev University solemnly observed Students’ Day on the occasion of the birth anniversary of Late Upendra Nath Brahma, as directed by the Government of Assam. The program paid tribute to the visionary leader, widely revered as “Bodofa,” for his immense contributions to the upliftment of the Bodo community and his ideals of principled leadership.

The event commenced with an opening speech delivered by a student representative, who emphasized the importance of youth participation in nation-building and drew inspiration from Bodofa’s life and struggles. This was followed by an address by Dr. Jadav Chandra Basumatary, who highlighted the enduring relevance of Bodofa’s philosophy in contemporary society.

A ceremonial lighting of the lamp and prayer session was led by Dr. Kunjalata Boro along with other faculty members, symbolizing enlightenment and reverence. Students actively participated in this segment, reflecting collective respect and unity.

The program continued with a series of insightful speeches by distinguished faculty members:

- Mr. Monoj Kumar Das, Former Head, Department of Political Science
- Dr. Nabanita Baruah, Department of Sociology
- Dr. Kunjalata Boro, Department of Education
- Dr. Diyuk Bora, Department of Political Science
- Dr. Akshya Haloi, Department of Zoology
- Dr. Dipen Tayung, Department of Philosophy
- Mrs. Shrabana Yasmin Department of Political Science
- Dr. Sonam Kumar Ramchiary, Department of Physical Education and Sports

All speakers emphasized the leadership qualities, vision, and socio-political contributions of Bodofa Upendra Nath Brahma. They underlined his role in empowering the Bodo community and advocated for the adoption of his ideals of integrity, unity, and constructive politics among the youth. Students who attended the program also shared their reflections, expressing deep admiration for Bodofa’s dedication and sacrifice.

The observance concluded by Dr. Jadav Chandra Basumatary on a note of inspiration, encouraging both students and faculty members to imbibe the values of dedication, social responsibility, and ethical leadership exemplified by ‘Bodofa’.
